Chapel

This week's chapel offering amounted to $24.75, raising our total to $400.66. This offering will end at the end of the first semester. Will the amount double at the end of two months? Your faithfulness to the spreading of God's love has been great! Let's not only give our offerings but keep our chaplains and soldiers in our prayers as well.

From the Principal's Office

Thank you to all of the families who participated in the Butter Braid fundraiser. The profit from this is just over $2,700.

The book fair boxes have arrived and we are all anxious to unpack them and see what is inside. The fair will be set up for after church on Sunday and then at the school during the week. Wed. and Thurs. evenings the fair will be open during conferences until 6:45.

November 12th will be our Veterans Celebration. We invite all veterans to be our guests for a program and dessert.

October's Walking Club Update –
51 walkers 7,719 laps 308.76 miles
Total Sept – Oct 12,877 laps 515.08 miles!! Mount Rushmore is 21 miles (425 laps) away. There will be a celebration when we make it to our first goal of Mount Rushmore.

Classroom News

Mrs. Selle's News: PreK 3 & Toddlers:

This week we focused on talking about angels. We read the book "God Gave Us Angels" and talked about how even though we can't see angels or God, they are with us. The class played with playdough by making snakes and tracing shapes. We got creative by making glitter angels. We practiced lining up at the door and walking quietly in the halls. Each week we work on sharing, manners and daily prayer. Every child is a blessing to have in class and teach each week.

Mrs. Bernau's News: PreK-4

Jesus is the reason that we live each day. He gives us purpose for each day. In our Jesus time we heard the story of Moses' birth. Sometimes bad things happen, but God means them for the good. We remember these Bible words. "My times are in your hand." Our letter for the week was "Ff". We played Bingo games that help the children identify the correct feeling. A fun story we are reading is called The Grumpy Morning. It is about animals on the farm in the morning and why they are so grumpy. The children will be asked about times they are grumpy and what causes this. We also read a book about Martin Luther. It was a pop-up book and the children enjoyed it. The children learned that Martin Luther shared his faith with his Luther seal. We are saved by grace alone through faith alone. Seeking God for His help at all times,

Mrs. Heine's News - Kindergarten

This week's religion is all about the Reformation and Martin Luther. The children know many facts about both and will be eager to share with you. Talking points include 95 Theses, salvation, heaven, forgiveness, monk, emperor, Wartburg, and "A Mighty Fortress." They want to bring home a special book about Martin Luther. We're continuing to work on handwriting with both numbers and letters, trying to remember spacing, positions, and also correct strokes. We're also very excited to learn about our 5 vowels with our vowel song and will gladly sing it for you. We've noticed that every word needs a vowel and every syllable needs a vowel. Needless to say we're also working on "what is a syllable?" This is an exciting time as we're working on many 3-letter words with phonemic awareness activities. Counting up to 50 is becoming more and more familiar to us.

Miss Goltermann's News: Gr. 1-2

Here we are at the end of the first quarter! The time really has gone by quickly. It is fun to see what has been accomplished in the first nine weeks of school, as well as exciting to see what lies ahead. This past week we have been working on songs for church and Veterans Day. We also learned about God's mercy and love for His people in "The Snake on the Pole." Our Luther study concluded on Wednesday. We are thankful for leaders like Martin Luther who stood firm on the Word of God. In social studies we have concluded our unit on America's patriotic days. Our next unit will be America's history. Types of sentences have been the topic in English. We are also learning about parts of speech. We covered nouns and adjectives and up next are verbs.

Blessings on your week! See you in worship this weekend!
In Christ, Miss Golterman

Miss Wenninger: Gr. 3-4

This week in the third and fourth grade classroom we worked hard on completing our chapter books. Third grade read a Haunted Hayride, and fourth grade read Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing. We celebrated Reformation by painting Martin Luther's seal on pumpkins. In math, third grade has been studying polygons with a catchy song. Ask them about it! Fourth grade has been working hard on a variety of math concepts. They are now up to 27 math problems individually completed each day. Looking forward to meeting with each of you for conferences next week!

Mrs. Scharf's News: Gr. 5-8

It always amazes me how fast the school year flies! I am looking forward to meeting with you next Wednesday or Thursday. Please check the schedule or ask your child for it if you haven't seen it yet! We have been watching a Martin Luther video this week. It shows the evidence of God's control over historic events that have far-reaching effects even for us today! The 5-6th graders started their new novel, Mrs. Frisby and the Rats of NIMH. The 7-8th graders are finishing Nothing But the Truth. I'm looking forward to their reaction to the twist at the very end of the book! Math continues to go well for the students. We had investigations this week. We do those together in class, so they enjoy a day of no math homework! ☺ The peace posters and patriot essays have been turned in. We will see if any of our students win the contests, but they did a great job even if we don't have a winner. Stay tuned!

Relying on God's strength, Mrs. Scharf
